WHEREAS, Plaintiffs' Complaint was filed in state court on February 9, 2012 and Defendant was served on or about February 13, 2012;

WHEREAS, Defendant and Plaintiffs previously stipulated to a 30-day extension of time for Defendant to respond up to April 15, 2012;

WHEREAS, since the above noted stipulation was filed, the following has occurred in this matter:

- 1) A Conditional Transfer Order regarding the transfer of this matter to MDL No. 2244, In Re: DePuy Orthopaedics, Inc., Pinnacle Hip Implant Products Liability Litigation, was filed on March 23, 2012, which order was opposed by Plaintiffs on March 30, 2012. Plaintiffs' motion to vacate this order was also filed on March 30, 2012 and DePuy's response is due April 20, 2012.
- 2) On March 22, 2012, DePuy filed a Motion to Stay pending transfer to MDL No. 2244, which Plaintiffs intend to oppose. The stay motion is set for hearing on June 1, 2012.
- 3) On March 29, 2012, Plaintiffs filed a Motion to Remand this action to the Superior Court for the County of San Francisco. DePuy will oppose the remand motion, which is also set for hearing on June 1, 2012.

WHEREAS, all of the issues described above remain unresolved at present, leaving doubt as to which court this matter will ultimately be litigated in and what manner of response would be consistent with the rules and procedures of that court. Given the pending motions and conditional transfer order, it appears this matter will not be litigated in the Northern District of California in any case.

WHEREAS, Defendant requests an extension of time to respond to Plaintiffs' complaint until such time as the venue and jurisdiction of this matter is resolved, and Plaintiffs have agreed. This will avoid unnecessary confusion and additional complication while the pending motions and issues are addressed and resolved, as well as avoid duplicative law and motion, since Defendant will respond with a Rule 12(b) motion to dismiss if forced to respond currently, which motion would address many of the same issues already addressed by Plaintiffs' Motion to Remand and DePuy's opposition thereto. As such, this extension will allow the parties sufficient time and opportunity to further meet and confer on the claims and causes of action asserted in the complaint with the goal of potentially avoiding future motions by Defendant, particularly in light of the resolution of the issues already pending. Thus, this extension of time allows the Court to resolve these issues of jurisdiction and venue before Defendant responds to the Complaint. THEREFORE, the parties agree that the response of Defendant Thomas P. Schmalzried, A Professional Corporation to the Complaint shall be due at the earlier of these two potential days: 20 days after the United States Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation rules on whether to transfer this matter to MDL No. 2244, In Re: DePuy Orthopaedics, Inc., Pinnacle Hip Implant Products Liability Litigation; or, 30 days after this Court grants Plaintiffs' Motion to Remand, if such a ruling occurs. IT IS SO ORDERED. April 12, 2012 DATED:
